Reasons to Apply!

1. Someone's going to win free money, why not you?
2. Several scholarships only receive a handful of applicants each semester, so chances of receiving an award might be higher than you realize.
3. Scholarships look great on a resume showing employers that you're a worthy investment.

One application is required for Foundation scholarships, and one application is required for Institutional scholarships.

If awarded, you will be notified five weeks after the deadline.
